

CAER Heritage Project Social Media Guidelines

CAER Heritage Project's social media pages (CAER Blog, Facebook, Twitter etc) are places where we encourage interaction and discussion between anyone interested in the CAER Heritage Project, archaeology, heritage, history and/or community engagement etc.

If you post a question or comment on these sites we will respond as quickly as possible during working hours (Mon-Fri, 9am-5pm). If your enquiry falls outside of these hours, we will get back to you as soon as possible.

We ask that you are respectful in your comments. We reserve the right to remove anything we deem:

- Abusive or personal attacks
- Material that is unlawful, obscene, defamatory, threatening, harassing, abusive, slanderous, hateful or embarrassing to any other entity
- Third party advertising
- Chain letters or 'spam'

We also reserve the right to terminate involvement by users who post such content.

The views and opinions expressed by external parties on this site do not necessarily represent those of the CAER Heritage Project. Therefore, we cannot be held responsible for the accuracy or reliability of information posted by external parties.

For your safety, please never include your phone number, email, address or other personal information in a post. Your comments are visible to all.
